

PR COUNCILLORS CANDIDATE CRITERIA

VERSION DATE: 10 JANUARY 2024

To be appointed as PR councillors for the National Coloured Congress, the following proposed criteria could be considered and is at the full discretion of the National Executive Committee (NEC):

1. Active Membership: Candidates should be active members of the National Coloured Congress, demonstrating their commitment to the organisation and its goals. They should have a track record of a minimum of 3 (three) years participation in party activities and initiatives.
2. Coloured Community Representation: Candidates should have a strong understanding of the issues and concerns faced by the coloured community and demonstrate a commitment to advocating for their rights and interests.
3. Political Experience: Preference may be given to candidates who have prior experience in political or community leadership roles, as this can provide them with the necessary skills and knowledge to effectively serve as PR councillors.
4. Communication Skills: Effective communication is crucial for PR councillors to engage with constituents, convey their ideas, and represent their interests. Candidates should possess strong verbal and written communication skills.
5. Problem-Solving Abilities: PR councillors should be able to analyse complex issues, propose practical solutions, and work collaboratively with other councillors to address the challenges faced by the coloured community.
6. Ethical Conduct: Candidates should demonstrate a high level of integrity, honesty, and ethical conduct in their personal and professional lives. This ensures that they can be trusted to make decisions in the best interest of the community.
7. Commitment to Diversity and Inclusion: PR councillors should embrace and promote diversity and inclusion within the coloured community and society at large. They should be dedicated to fostering an inclusive environment that respects and values all individuals.
8. Knowledge of Local Issues: Candidates should have a good understanding of the specific challenges and opportunities faced by the coloured community at the local level. This knowledge will enable them to effectively address the needs of their constituents.
